

I am a flight attendant for Northwest Airlines and can not imagine how annoying to the working crew and passengers it would be to have people using their cell phones inflight. The constant noise would be intolerable. It is hard enough to get their attention for safety demos, drink orders,etc. without them being on their cellphones also. PLEASE do not allow this to happen!! Thank you,Connie Hanson